New York Cotten Market.

New York March 31.—Hubbard, Price & Co.'s daily letter: "In Liverbook before 12 o'clock today, futures had declined 3-64. Spot sales were only 7,000 bales and private cables continue to report a feeling of extreme pessimism in Manchester. The resulting decline on our market was not as great as might have been expected. Opening prices were about 4 points blow last evening's quotations. The comparative steadiness here reacted upon hiverbook and that market recovered a part of the loss, closing steady at 1-64 to 2-64 decline? Shortly after the opening prices here railied to stimin a point or two of last night's figures mean an erroneous report that New Orleans receipts for the day would be only 1,500 bales. A carrection of this and the news that receipts at New Orleans were over 5,500 bales led to fresh selling and carried August down to 6,59, after which the market relapsed into duliness, and at loclock had recovered about 2 points from the lowest. Total bour receipts for the day will be live bales, against 8,300 last week and 13,000 last year. For to-morrow New Orleans receipts are estimated at 1,500 bales. During the afternoon the market continued steady and without change of importance. Closing figures were 2 points above the lowest. Excepts at New triesans, owing to corrections made upon this, the last day of the 'month, turn out to be lowed to short couton here to-day, which will prove an element of strength or weakness, as to morrow sforeign advices may turn the scale of speculation temporarily.

Intures closed steady. Receipts at the ports are 19,000 bales, against 8,000 bales last week and 15,000 last year. The spot market is dull at unchanged quotations. Middling uplands, 6 11-44. Siles 221 bales. Transactions in futures, 99,000 bales, 221 bales. Transactions in futures, 99,000 bales New York Cotton Market.
